Ragging

As per the ordinance of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Dt. 08-05-2009 that “Ragging is totally banned and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or encouraging ragging is liable to be punished”.

Legal Definition

“Ragging means the doing of any act which causes any physical, psychological or physiological harm of apprehension or shame or embarrassment to a student and also includes

- I. Teasing or abusing or playing practical joke
- II. Causing hurt to any student
- III. Asking any student to do any act, or perform any thing, which he/she would not be willing to do or perform.

Punishment

Actions to be taken against students for indulging and abetting in Ragging in technical institutions, universities including Deemed to be University imparting technical education :-

1. The punishment to be meted out to the persons indulging in ragging has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents. The students who are found to be indulging in ragging should be debarred from taking admission in any technical institution in India.

2. For every single incident of ragging a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities.
3. Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution, the possible punishments for those found guilty of ragging at the institution level shall be any one or any combination of the following:-
 - a) Cancellation of admission.
 - b) Suspension from attending classes.
 - c) Withholding / withdrawing scholarship / fellowship and other benefits.
 - d) Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival etc.
 - e) Suspension / expulsion from the hostel.
 - f) Rustication from the institution for period ranging from 1 to 4 semesters.
 - g) Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
 - h) Fine of Rupees 25,000/-
 - i) Collective punishment: when the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential raggers.
4. The institutional authority shall intimate the incidents of ragging in their premises along with actions taken to the Council and immediately after occurrence of such incident inform the status of the case from time to time to the council.
5. Ragging is banned in this institute, anybody who will be ragged has all the right to report it to the authority for which action as deemed fit will be taken. There is nothing to be afraid of reporting such cases confidentially to the authorities. We inculcate courage and knowledge for personality development in a person. “Be Fearless”

In case of any such trouble the 1st year students are advised to contact Hostel Superintendent, Principal, & Members of the Anti-Ragging Committee and Police authorities.

Anti-Ragging Committee

The below committee maintains Ragging Free campus as well as hostels of the institute. They are always advised to alert and vigilant at all times. They are authorised to make surprise raids on hostels and vulnerable places like canteen etc. In cases of any ragging incident coming to their notice appropriate actions are taken.
